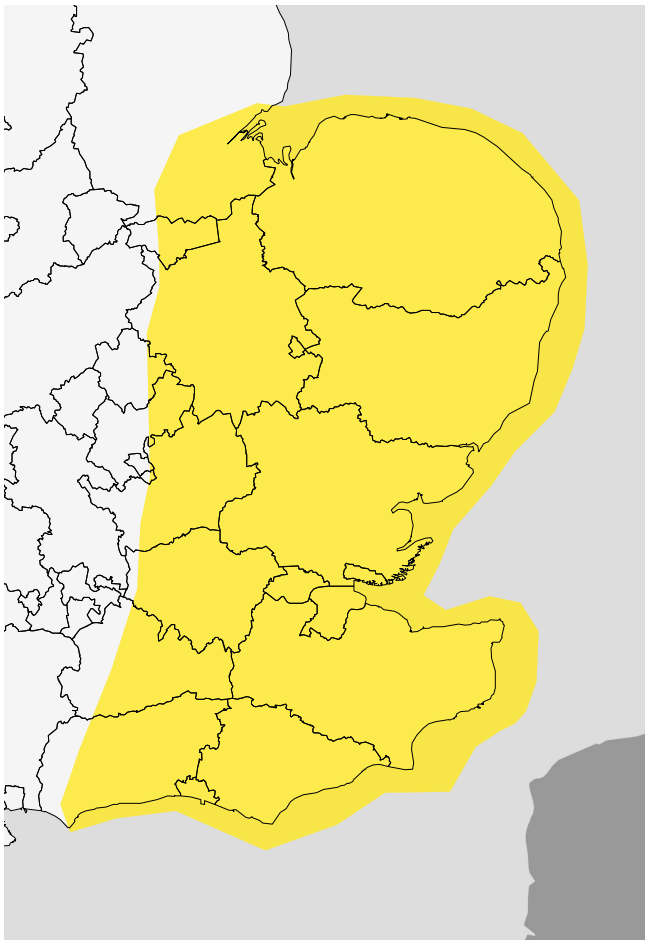
Rain

Between
15:00 Sat 17 Feb 2024 and
12:00 Sun 18 Feb 2024



Rain may cause some travel disruption and flooding on Sunday morning

What to expect

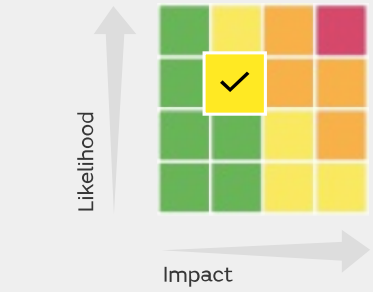
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely

Further details

Rain will continue east across east and southeast England on Sunday morning, before clearing by midday. With this rain falling on already saturated ground, impacts are more likely. Many places are likely to see 10-15 mm of rain, although 20 mm is possible in a few places, this falling in a a few hours.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



Medium likelihood of low impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.

Reason for update

Warning extended until the end of the morning across east and southeast England whilst elsewhere the warning has been cancelled as rain is easing.
